

1 Pronomi reciproci. Scegli l'alternativa corretta.

Esempio: Alicia and Tom like one another / each other a lot.

- 1 All the office staff get on very well with one another / each other.
- 2 During the lesson, Lily and Bradley continued chatting to one another / each other.
- 3 The students were told to check one another's / each other's test.
- 4 The team worked hard to help one another / each other during the difficult climb.
- 5 The two friends have known one another / each other since they were 5.

---

2 Pronomi riflessivi e reciproci. Scegli l'alternativa corretta.

Esempio: Parents can only blame themselves / each other if their kids behave badly.

- 1 Martin realised he had been deceiving herself / himself. Zoe didn't love him.
- 2 The two children got on well with each other / one another.
- 3 We didn't find one another / ourselves in trouble because we followed the instructor's advice.
- 4 Did you enjoy each other / yourselves at the paintball event?
- 5 The class was in an uproar: there was a lot of horseplay and all the students were shouting at themselves / one another.

---

3 Pronomi riflessivi e reciproci. Scegli il pronome corretto tra A, B o C.

Esempio: Bob was very proud of himself for passing the test with full marks.

A herself    B himself    C each other

- 1 The students really enjoyed ..... at the school party.
A themselves                                    B one another                                    C himself
- 2 I'll talk to the headmaster .....
A myself    B himself    C each other
- 3 You can't invite both Paul and Sally. They aren't speaking to .....
A each other                                        B themselves                                        C yourself
- 4 The members of the football team have known ..... for a long time.
A themselves                                        B ourselves                                        C one another
- 5 The TV switched off by .....
A herself    B itself    C each other

---

4 Completa le frasi con il pronome indefinito, riflessivo o reciproco corretto.

Esempio: Has anyone come forward to claim the wallet we found?

- 1 ..... was interested in watching that programme so we switched over to another channel.
- 2 John has bought a house ..... near the coast.
- 3 We didn't do ..... to deserve this punishment.
- 4 Chris and Mary often help ..... with their homework.
- 5 I often cut ..... when I chop vegetables.